Single Tuberose and Purple Orchid Lei

The single tuberose and purple orchid lei is a wonderful blend of flowers which provides the user with both color and fragrance. This lei is great for luaus and birthday parties. Single Tuberose

Lei: The tuberose flower is 2-inch elongated white blossom with elongated petals and a strong perfume fragrance. This flowering plant grows year-round in Hawaii and is often considered the "traditional" lei flower of the islands because of its intoxicating aroma. Blossoms are picked in the cool early morning or late evening when they are in full bloom. The lei is then hand-sewn in circular fashion with approximately 30-45 blossoms.

Group # 3 ~ Price: $26.50

The Ti Leaf lei is a simple lei made from the Ti plant. Hawaiians believe that the ti plant has powers to heal and to ward off evil spirits. The ti was the sacred symbol of the gods. The leaves were used in the rituals of cleansing and rendering free of evil spirits by the kahuna-pule heiau, temple priest, and in the rituals of healing by the kahuna-lapa'au, the medical priest. This lei is wrapped with the white orchid flower.
